

This activity can be done using fish crackers or it can be simulated with paper fish or other materials. You will need a place for each group to provide their data in order to calculate the class data

Safety Considerations

Care should be given that students do not consume any fish.